This empowerment not only creates the possibility of a better life for them, but also equips them to have confidence and individuality. Hence, the aim of this initiative is to encourage and enable women to look forward to a better quality of life, by giving them opportunities to learn a skill through which they can become financially independent. COMMUNITY HEALTHCARE

In order to ensure delivery of quality healthcare including maternal, newborn, child health and nutrition services to the vulnerable segments of population living in urban slums in Delhi/NCR, we have partnered with Dr. A V Baliga Memorial Trust to support the implementation of a model of comprehensive (preventive, promotive and curative) service delivery through Life Line Clinics. The primary target groups of this project are women and children although the entire community benefits.

EDUCATION & CRUCIAL LIFE SKILLS

In the year 2018, we started a new project on non-formal education with ABLE Charities, Faridabad (Delhi NCR), where we support informal education to children as we believe that "if the children cannot go to school, the school should go to the children". With this aim, ABLE Charities has opened a centre where children from the slums of Faridabad can attend school very close to their communities. The beneficiaries are primarily children of construction labour and rag pickers. Besides non-formal education, children are provided with the mid-day meals and periodic medical check-ups. They are also taught about the importance of hand washing and personal hygiene. In the past years since the project started, there is a visible impact on the health & well-being of the children. As a result, their attendance and retention have both improved. The children are now more confident of themselves and above all they believe that they can make more progress in their studies. They look forward to attending school on a regular basis.

ENVIRONMENT

Xerox India views environmental preservation as a vital aspect of its CSR strategy. Hence, efforts in conserving biodiversity and ecosystems as well as creating awareness of their role in a healthy society are a mainstay of our CSR focus. Xerox India has partnered with WWF-India for conducting Eco/Nature-trails as an initiative where children not just learn but also enjoy their rendezvous with nature. Our experience of the Eco/Nature-trails conducted by WWF-India in 2019-20 has reinforced our belief that children have an innate ability to bond and learn from the environment and if nurtured correctly, this can lead to sustainable thinking and ecological literacy.

Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. Annexure A to the Independent Auditor's Report on even date on the Financial Statements of Xerox India Limited

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the company has internal financial controls with reference to financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Annexure C to the Independent Auditor's Report of even date on the Financial Statements of Xerox India Limited for the year ended March 31, 2020

[Referred to in paragraph 2(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' in the Independent Auditors' Report]

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act")

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements of Xerox India Limited ("the Company") as of March 31, 2020 in conjunction with our audit of the financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS

The Company's Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control with reference to financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) (the "Guidance Note"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

AUDITORS' RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Act, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether internal financial controls with reference to financial statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the standalone¹ financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls with reference to financial statements.

MEANING OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

A Company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control with reference to financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

OPINION

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, internal financial controls with reference to financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2020, based on the internal control with reference to financial statements criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note.

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current / non-current classification.

An asset is classified as current when it is expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle, held primarily for the purpose of trading, expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period.

A liability is classified as current when it is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle, it is held primarily for the purpose of trading, it is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or there is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period.

2.5 Property, plant and equipment

An item is recognised as an asset, if and only if, it is probable that the future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and its cost can be measured reliably. Property, plant and equipment are stated at acquisition cost (including non-refundable duties and taxes), accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Cost includes original cost of acquisition and includes expenses incidental to such acquisition. Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. Freehold land is carried at historical cost.

Items of property, plant and equipment that have been retired from active use and are held for disposal are stated at the lower of their net book value and net realisable value and are shown separately in the financial statements under other non-current Assets (refer note 44).

Losses, if any, arising from the retirement of, and gains or losses arising from disposal of property, plant and equipment are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Property, plant and equipment which are not ready for intended use as on the date of Balance Sheet are disclosed as "Capital work-in-progress" separately in Balance Sheet.

2.6 Intangible assets

Intangibles assets are stated at acquisition cost, net of accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Intangible assets are amortised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives.

2.7 Depreciation and amortisation

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful life or in case of leasehold improvements, over the shorter of lease term and the estimated useful life. The Company provides depreciation basis its useful life determined on technical evaluation which matches with the useful life as prescribed in Schedule II of Companies Act, 2013. The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting year.

Estimated useful life of property, plant, equipment and intangibles are as follows:

Assets	Useful Lives (in years)
Equipment given on operating lease	5
Leasehold improvements	Life of lease or 5 years, whichever is shorter
Buildings	60
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	10
Vehicles	8
Office equipment	5
Computers	3
Software	2-7

Notes to the Financial Statements

[All figures in Rs. lacs, unless otherwise stated]

Depreciation on addition to assets is provided on pro-rata basis from the date of asset put to use. Depreciation on disposal from assets is provided for up to the date of disposal.

2.8 Investment property

Property that is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both, and that is not occupied by the Company, is classified as investment property. Investment property is measured initially at its cost, including related transaction costs and where applicable borrowing costs. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised to the asset's carrying amount only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the expenditure will flow to the Company and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance costs are expensed when incurred.

2.9 Impairment of assets

Non-financial assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. Non-financial assets that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash generating units).

2.10 Inventories

Inventories are stated at lower of cost and net realisable value. The basis for determination of cost of various categories of inventory is as follows:

Inventory Type	Method of cost determination
Finished goods – Trade Components for sales and service of field	Weighted average
Machines	Weighted average
Loose tools	Weighted average

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Spare parts are either consumed for rendering services or held as merchandise for sale, hence considered as inventory.

The recoverability of inventories including loose tools, components for sale and service of field machines held to support servicing of discontinued/ obsolete/ dormant models, is periodically reviewed and provision for obsolescence is recorded for the difference between net realisable values and carrying value.

2.11 Foreign currency transactions

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Company operates ('the functional currency'). The financial statements are presented in Indian rupee (INR), which is Company's functional and presentation currency.

(ii) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the date of the transaction. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transaction and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are recognised in profit or loss.

Notes to the Financial Statements

[All figures in Rs. lacs, unless otherwise stated]

(iii) Translation of foreign branch

The results and financial position of foreign branch that has a functional currency different from the presentation currency is translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- Assets and liabilities are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet
- Income and expenses are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the dates of the transactions), and
- All resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

2.12 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized upon transfer of control of promised products or services to customers for an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for those products or services after deduction of any trade discounts, volume rebates and taxes or duties collected on behalf of government such goods and service tax etc.

Effective April 1, 2018, the Company adopted IND AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The effect on the adoption of IND AS 115 was insignificant. The adoption of IND AS 115 required enhanced disclosures about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from the Company's contracts with customers. The details of such disclosure are available in Note 31.

Equipment: Revenues from the sale of equipment directly to end customers, including those from finance leases, are recognized when obligations under the terms of a contract with the customer are satisfied and control has been transferred to the customer. For equipment placements that require the Company to install the product at the customer location, revenue is normally recognized when the equipment has been delivered and installed at the customer location. Sales of customer installable products are recognized upon shipment or receipt by the customer, according to the customer's shipping terms. Revenue from the equipment performance obligation also includes certain analyst training services performed in connection with the installation or delivery of the equipment.

The Company utilize distributors and resellers to sell equipment, supplies to end-user customers. The Company refers to distributor and reseller network as their two-tier distribution model. Revenues on sales to distributors and resellers are generally recognized when products are shipped to such distributors and resellers. However, revenue is only recognized when the distributor or reseller has economic substance apart from the Company such that collectability is probable and the Company has no further obligations related to bringing about the resale, delivery or installation of the product that would impact transfer of control. Revenue that may be subject to reversal due to contractual terms or uncertainties is not recorded as revenue until the contractual provisions lapse or uncertainties are resolved.

Distributors and resellers participate in various rebate, price-protection, cooperative marketing and other programs and the Company estimate the variable consideration associated with these programs and record those amounts as a reduction from revenue when the sales occur. Similarly, the Company accounts for estimates of sales returns and other allowances when the sales occur based on historical experience.

Maintenance services: The Company provide maintenance agreements on equipment that include service and supplies for which the customer may pay a base minimum plus a price-per-page charge for usage. In arrangements that include minimums, those minimums are normally set below the customer's estimated page volumes and are not considered substantive. The Company normally account for these maintenance agreements as a single performance obligation for printing services being delivered in a series with delivery being measured by usage as billed to the customer. Accordingly, revenue on these agreements are normally recognized as billed to the customer over the term of the agreements based on page volumes. A substantial portion of products are sold with full service maintenance agreements, accordingly, other than the product warranty obligations associated with certain entry level products, where the Company does not have any significant warranty obligations, including any obligations under customer satisfaction programs.

Bundled lease arrangements: Company also sell equipment to end customers through bundled lease arrangements that typically include equipment, maintenance and financing components for which the customer pays a single fixed minimum monthly payment for all elements over the contractual lease term. These arrangements also typically include an incremental, variable component for page volumes in excess of contractual page volume minimums, which are often expressed in terms of price-per-page. The fixed minimum monthly payments are multiplied by the number of months in the contract term to arrive at the total fixed minimum payments that the customer is obligated to make (fixed payments) over the lease term. Revenues under bundled arrangements are allocated using the residual method.

Notes to the Financial Statements

[All figures in Rs. lacs, unless otherwise stated]

Lease deliverables include the equipment, financing, maintenance and other executory costs, while non-lease deliverables generally consist of the supplies and non-maintenance services. The allocation for the lease deliverables begins by allocating revenues to the equipment plus a profit thereon. Finance income is recognized over the period of the lease at the rate implicit in the lease. The remaining charges are allocated towards other elements using residual approach. These other elements are generally recognized over the term of the lease as service revenue.

Supplies: Supplies revenue is recognized upon transfer of control to the customer, generally upon utilization or shipment to the customer, in accordance with the sales contract terms.

Software support services and business support services are rendered to overseas affiliates of the Company. Revenue from such contracts are recognised on cost plus margin in accordance with the terms of the agreement entered between the Company and these affiliates.

Revenue from extended warranty: Revenue from extended warranty is recognised over the period of warranty.

Revenue from fixed price contracts: Where there is no uncertainty as to measurement or collectability of consideration, revenue is recognised based upon the percentage of completion method. When there is uncertainty about measurement or ultimate collectability, revenue recognition is deferred until such uncertainty is resolved.

The Company recognises contract liabilities for consideration received in respect of unsatisfied performance obligations and reports these amounts as other liabilities. Similarly, if the Company satisfies a performance obligation before it receives the consideration, the Company recognises either a contract asset or a receivable, depending on whether something other than the passage of time is required before the consideration is due.

Interest on refund of income tax is recognised on actual realisation.

Government grants: Exports incentives under various schemes are recognised under the head of "Miscellaneous income" when there is a reasonable assurance that all the conditions attached to it have been complied and the incentives will be received.

2.13 Employee benefits

Short-term obligations:

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as current employee benefit obligations in the balance sheet.

Other long-term employee benefit obligations:

The liabilities for earned leave not expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service. They are therefore measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method. The benefits are discounted using the appropriate market yields at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation. Re-measurements as a result of experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in profit or loss.

The obligations are presented as current liabilities in the balance sheet if the Company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least twelve months after the reporting period, regardless of when the actual settlement is expected to occur.

The liabilities for retention bonus is recognised at discounted value over the vesting period.

Notes to the Financial Statements

[All figures in Rs. lacs, unless otherwise stated]

Post-employment obligations

The Company operates the following post-employment schemes:

- (a) Defined benefit plans (gratuity and provident fund); and
- (b) Defined contribution plans (superannuation plan).

Gratuity: Benefits payable to eligible employees of the Company with respect to gratuity, a defined benefit plan is accounted for on the basis of an actuarial valuation on the projected unit credit (PUC) method adjusted for past service and fair value of plan assets as at the balance sheet date. The Company contributes all the ascertained liabilities to a fund maintained by a trust set up by the Company and administered by a board of trustees, which has taken two Gratuity cum insurance policies with the Life Insurance Corporation of India to cover the gratuity liability of the employees.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation. The net interest cost is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. Interest cost along with current service cost is included in employee benefit expense in the statement of profit and loss. Premeasurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income.

The Company recognizes the net obligation of a defined benefit plan in its balance sheet as an asset or liability.

Provident fund: In accordance with the provisions of the Employees Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952, eligible employees of the Company are entitled to receive benefits with respect to provident fund, a defined benefit plan in which both the Company and the employee contribute monthly at a determined rate. These contributions are made to a fund maintained by a trust set up by the Company and administered by the Board of Trustees. The Company's liability is actuarially determined (using Projected Unit Credit method) at the end of the year and any shortfall in the fund size maintained by the trust set up by the Company is additionally provided for.

Superannuation: Benefits payable to eligible employees of the Company under the superannuation plan, a defined contribution plan is accounted for on the basis of contributions calculated at a specified percentage (at present 13%) of salary paid to the employees. The Company contributes all the ascertained liabilities to a fund set up by the Company and administered by a board of trustees, which has taken a policy with Life Insurance Corporation of India to cover such liability.

Termination benefits: Termination benefits are recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss as and when incurred.

Group settled share based payments: Share-based compensation benefits are provided to employees via equity settled stock options granted under Award Plans of Xerox Corporation, USA.

The fair value of awards granted under Employee Stock Option Plans is recognized as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding credit to reserve and surplus. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the options granted:

- Including any market performance conditions
- Excluding the impact of any service and non-market performance vesting conditions (e.g. profitability, sales growth targets and remaining an employee of the Company over a specified time period), and
- Including the impact of any non-vesting conditions (e.g. the requirement for employees to save or holdings shares for a specific period of time)

The total expense is recognized over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each period, the Company revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest based on the non-market vesting and service conditions. It recognizes the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in profit or loss, with a corresponding adjustment to reserve and surplus.

2.14 Income tax

Current tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the Company and its branches operate and generate taxable income. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the balance sheet approach on temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes at the reporting date.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside the Statement of Profit and Loss is recognised outside the Statement of Profit and Loss. Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in Other Comprehensive Income or directly in equity.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current income tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxation authority.

The Company has evaluated the applicability of "Appendix C to Ind AS 12-Uncertainty over income tax treatments". It has no material impact on financial statements.

2.15 Provisions and contingent liabilities

Provisions: A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted to reflect its present value using a current pre-tax rate that reflects the current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a finance cost.

Contingent liabilities: Contingent liabilities are disclosed when there is a possible obligation arising from past events, the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more uncertain future events not wholly within the control of the Company or a present obligation that arises from past events where it is either not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle or a reliable estimate of the amount cannot be made.

2.16 Lease

As a lessee

The Company has adopted Ind AS 116-Leases effective 1st April, 2019, using the modified retrospective method. The Company has applied the standard to its leases by recognizing right-of-use asset equivalent to an amount of corresponding lease liability adjusted by the amount of any prepaid or accrued lease payments relating to that lease recognised in the statement of financial position immediately before the date of initial application. Accordingly, previous period information has not been restated. The Company's lease asset classes primarily consist of leases for Office Buildings. The Company assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease, at inception of a contract. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Notes to the Financial Statements

[All figures in Rs. lacs, unless otherwise stated]

The Company determines the lease term as the non-cancellable period of a lease, along with assessing the reasonable certainty of exercising the renewal option. In assessing whether the Company is reasonably certain to exercise an option to extend a lease, or not to exercise an option to terminate a lease, it considers all relevant facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive for the Company to exercise the option to extend the lease, or not to exercise the option to terminate the lease. The Company revises the lease term if there is a change in the non-cancellable period of a lease.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognises a right-of-use asset ("ROU") and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short term leases) and leases of low value assets. For these short term and leases of low value assets, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight line basis over the term of the lease. The right-of-use assets are initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the underlying asset. The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if not readily determinable, using the incremental borrowing rates. The lease liability is subsequently remeasured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability, reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made. Lease liability and ROU asset have been separately presented in the balance sheet and lease payments have been classified as financing cash flows.

The Company has combined two or more contracts where the substance of multiple legal agreements entered into at or near the same time with the same counterparty (or parties related to the counterparty) might only be understood when viewed as a single, composite contract.

As a Lessor

Global document outsourcing contract in the nature of embedded lease where the minimum lease term is for the major part of the assets economic life and the minimum lease payments amounts to substantially all the fair value of the assets are considered as a Finance Lease. Other embedded leases are considered as Operating Lease.

For embedded leases in the nature of a Finance Lease, the equipment's fair value is recognised as a Lease Receivable. The minimum lease payments are identified by segregating the embedded lease payments from the rest of the payments as per the contract. Each lease receipt is allocated between the receivable and finance lease income so as to achieve a constant rate on the Lease Receivable outstanding.

In the case of Operating Leases or embedded operating leases, the lease income from the operating lease is recognised in revenue over the lease term to reflect the pattern of use benefit derived from the leased asset. The respective leased assets are included in the Balance Sheet based on their nature and depreciated over its economic life.

2.17 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.18 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year is adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

Notes to the Financial Statements

[All figures in Rs. lacs, unless otherwise stated]

2.19 Trade receivables

Trade receivables are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, net of any expected credit losses.

2.20 Other financial assets

Classification - The Company classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- Fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI),
- Fair value through profit and loss,
- At amortised cost

The classification depends on the Company's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

Measurement

At initial recognition, the Company measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

Impairment of financial assets

The Company assesses impairment based on past history of recovery, credit worthiness of the counter party adjusted with forward looking estimates associated with its assets carried at amortised cost. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. For trade receivables only, the Company applies the simplified approach required by Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

Derecognition of financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily de-recognised (i.e. removed from the Company's balance sheet) when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, or
- The Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either (a) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Company has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

2.21 Derivatives

The Company enters into certain derivative contracts to hedge risks which are not designated as hedges. Such contracts are accounted for at fair value through profit or loss and are included in other gains/ (losses).

2.22 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker.

The board of directors has been identified as being the chief operating decision maker. Refer note 52 for segment information presented.

2.23 Recent Accounting Developments

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards. There is no such notification which would have been applicable from April 1, 2020.

3. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGMENT

The preparation of financial statements requires the use of accounting estimates which, by definition, will seldomly equal the actual results. Management also needs to exercise judgement in applying the Company's accounting policies that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. This note provides an overview of the areas that involved a higher degree of judgement or complexity, and of items which are more likely to be materially adjusted due to estimates and assumptions turning out to be different than those originally assessed. Detailed information about each of these estimates and judgements is included in relevant notes together with information about the basis of calculation for each affected line item in the financial statements.

- Recognition of revenue – Refer note 31
- Estimation of provision for direct tax matters, indirect tax matters and other legal matters- Refer note22
- Estimation of defined benefit obligation - Refer Note 35

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated. They are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the Company and that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Critical judgement in calculating amount:

Other provisions includes provisions made mainly for probable claims arising out of certain indirect tax, direct tax and legal matters under various statutes. These estimates take into account the specific circumstances of each matter and relevant external advice, are inherently judgmental and could change substantially over time as each matter progresses. The ultimate liability for claims may vary from the amounts provided and is dependent upon the outcome of the relevant proceedings, change in circumstances and there can be no assurance that the ultimate result will not differ from the provisions reported in the Company's financial statements by a material amount. The timing and probability of the outflow and expected reimbursements if any with regard to these matters, depends on the ultimate settlement / conclusion of these matters.

Critical judgements in calculating amounts

Revenue from the sale of goods is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts and volume rebates. Accruals are made at the time of sale for the estimated rebates, discounts or allowances payable or returns to be made, based on available market information current and projected, historical experience and contractual and legal obligations. The level of accrual is reviewed and adjusted regularly in the light of past experience, projected market conditions etc. Because the amounts are estimated it may differ from the final outcome, which could affect the future results of the Company.

Transaction price allocated to the remaining performance obligations

Transaction price is the expected consideration to be received in exchange for transferring goods or services, to the extent that it is highly probable that there will not be a significant reversal of revenue.

Reconciliation of revenue recognised with the contracted price is as follows:

Particulars	March 31, 2020	March 31, 2019
Contracted price	49,241.47	61,696.91
Adjustments for :
Cash discounts	(25.00)	(46.68)

Extended warranty	(26.96)	(25.43)

Employee benefits payable

a) Leave encashment

The leave obligations cover the Company's liability for earned leave. The entire amount of the provision is presented as current, since the Company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for any of these obligations. However, based on past experience, the Company does not expect all employees to avail the full amount of accrued leave or require payment for such leave within the next 12 months.

b) Defined benefit plans

Provident fund: Provident fund for certain eligible employees is managed by the Company through the "Xerox India Employees' Provident Fund Trust", in line with the Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952. The plan guarantees interest at the rate notified by the Provident Fund Authorities. The contribution by the employer and employee together with the interest accumulated thereon are payable to employees at the time of their separation from the Company or retirement, whichever is earlier. The benefits vest immediately on rendering of the services by the employee.

Gratuity: Gratuity for the eligible employees is managed by contributing all ascertained liabilities to a fund set up by the Company and administered by a board of trustees, which has taken two Gratuity cum insurance policies with the Life Insurance Corporation of India to cover the gratuity liability of the employees. Every employee is entitled to a benefit in line with the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, which is payable at the time of separation from the Company or retirement, whichever is earlier. The benefit vest after five years of continuous service.

Significant estimates: actuarial assumptions and sensitivity

The significant actuarial assumptions were as follows:

Gratuity

	March 31, 2020	March 31, 2019
Discount rate	6.31%	7.18%
Salary growth rate	7.00%	8.00%

Provident fund

Discount rate	6.31%	7.18%
Expected statutory rate on ledger balance	8.50%	8.65%
Expected shortfall in interest rate	0.10%	0.05%

The sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to changes in the weighted principal assumptions is:

	Gratuity March 31, 2020	Provident Fund March 31, 2020
Impact of Change in discount rate
Present Value of Obligation at the end of period	680.08	7,255.04
1) impact due to 0.5% increase	(15.20)	(0.19)
2) impact due to 0.5% decrease	15.87	0.19
Impact of Change in salary growth rate
Present Value of Obligation at the end of period	680.08
1) impact due to 0.5% increase	15.70
2) impact due to 0.5% decrease	(15.18)

Notes to the Financial Statements

[All figures in Rs. lacs, unless otherwise stated]

	March 31, 2020	March 31, 2019
Impact of Change in discount rate
1) impact due to 0.5% increase	(15.69)	(0.19)
2) impact due to 0.5% decrease	16.40	0.20
Impact of Change in salary growth rate
1) impact due to 0.5% increase	16.19
2) impact due to 0.5% decrease	(15.64)

The above sensitivity analyses are based on a change in an assumption while holding all other assumptions constant. In practice, this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some of the assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to significant actuarial assumptions the same method (present value of the defined benefit obligation calculated with the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period) has been applied as when calculating the defined benefit liability recognised in the balance sheet.

The methods and types of assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis did not change compared to the prior period.

The major categories of plans assets for Provident Fund are as follows:

	March 31, 2020	March 31, 2019
Government securities (Central & state)	56%	57%
Corporate bonds/debentures/loans	0%	0%
Equity shares of listed Companies	4%	3%
Fixed deposits under special deposit scheme of central government	0%	0%
Public sector unit bonds	39%	39%
Fixed deposits and money market instruments	0%	0%
Others	1%	1%
	100%	100%

Risk exposure

Through its defined benefit plans, the Company is exposed to a number of risks, the most significant of which are detailed below:

- Salary Increases – Actual salary increases will increase the Plan’s liability. Increase in salary increase rate assumption in future valuations will also increase the liability.
- Investment Risk – If Plan is funded then assets liabilities mismatch & actual investment return on assets lower than the discount rate assumed at the last valuation date can impact the liability.
- Discount Rate – Reduction in discount rate in subsequent valuations can increase the plan’s liability.
- Mortality & disability – Actual deaths & disability cases proving lower or higher than assumed in the valuation can impact the liabilities.
- Withdrawals – Actual withdrawals proving higher or lower than assumed withdrawals and change of withdrawal rates at subsequent valuations can impact Plan’s liability.

The Company's best estimate of contribution for the year ending March 31, 2021 towards Gratuity is Rs.32.49 and towards Provident Fund is Rs.195.55.

The weighted average duration of Gratuity is 4.84 years (March 31, 2019 – 5.40 years). The weighted average duration of provident fund is 4.84 years (March 31, 2019 – 5.40 years). The expected maturity analysis of undiscounted gratuity and provident fund is as follows:

44 RAMPUR CLOSURE:

Pursuant to the approval of the shareholders of the Company in their Extra-Ordinary General Meeting held on March 25, 2010 for disposal of Rampur undertaking, the Company closed the said undertaking w.e.f. March 31, 2010 and accordingly, initiated the process for its disposal. The said disposal was subject to entering into definitive agreements and obtaining of regulatory approvals thereof.

During FY 2011-12, the Company entered into an agreement with Modipur Devices Pvt. Ltd. for sale of the aforesaid undertaking including the leasehold land, controlled land, freehold land, buildings and other assets at Rampur for an aggregate consideration of Rs.2250 Lacs, out of which Rs.1150 Lacs was received by the Company in the financial year 2011-12 and the balance in the financial year 2013-14. However, the sale of undertaking had not been recognised in the books pending registration of the deed of conveyance/sale deed or assignment of lease. The registration of the deed of conveyance/sale deed or assignment of lease was conditional upon the obtaining of necessary regulatory approval which has been awaited.

In respect of the aforesaid leasehold land, during the financial year ended March 31, 2016, the first tranche of lease (i.e. first 30 years out of the three tranches/sub-terms of total lease term for 90 years) granted by the relevant Government to the Company expired on September 20, 2015. However, much prior to the said expiry and thereafter, the Company wrote several letters to the relevant Government department/authority requesting renewal/extension of the lease for the second tranche of 30 years as well as permission for assignment/transfer of leasehold land in favour of Modipur Devices Pvt. Ltd. Further, in March 2016, the Company received a letter from the concerned Government Department seeking explanation with respect to the renewal of the lease, which was appropriately replied by the Company in April 2016.

During the FY 2016-17, the concerned Government Department announced a scheme (vide notification no. 10-638/77-3-16-9 dt. April 29, 2016) providing for conversion of leasehold land into freehold land. In order to achieve the objective of the aforesaid agreement, the Company, accordingly, applied to the concerned Government Department (vide its application dated July 14, 2016) for allowing conversion of the said leasehold land into freehold land as well as transfer of the said freehold land (upon conversion) in favour of Modipur Devices Pvt. Ltd. However, the concerned Government Department returned the conversion application with an advice to complete the process of renewal first and then re-apply.

During the year under review, nothing had been heard back from the concerned Govt. Authority on our aforesaid application for renewal and transfer of lease. However, the Company received a letter (dated May 16, 2019) from the local administrative authority seeking some clarifications. To that, the Company submitted its reply (vide letter dated June 4, 2019). Pending such approvals, the assets (including leasehold land) of Rs.24.05 lacs attributable to the said undertaking have been classified as assets held for sale.

45. OTHER NOTES

a) Disclosure:

Subsequent to the submission of the required information with the Directorate of Enforcement ("ED") in the FY 2014-15 relating to the trading activities undertaken by the Company during the years 2000-2003, the Company (vide its letter dated September 8, 2014) requested the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) for clarity on the approval requirement with respect to the aforesaid trading activities undertaken by the Company. To that, RBI issued a letter (dated November 23, 2016) to the Company stating that in terms of Press Note 2 of 2000 dated February 11, 2000, FDI in cash and carry wholesale trading required prior approval of the Foreign Investment Promotion Board (FIPB).

Pursuant to the aforesaid RBI letter, the Company submitted applications with FIPB on December 29, 2016 and May 23, 2017 (which was processed by Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion). However, both these applications were rejected by FIPB on technical grounds (vide its letter dated April 24, 2017 citing, inter alia, that the Company did not seek specific approval) and thereafter by Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion (DIPP) (vide its letter dated August 25, 2017 citing that no merit was found to change the earlier decision of the Govt. as communicated vide the said FIPB letter of April 24, 2017).

Notes to the Financial Statements

[All figures in Rs. lacs, unless otherwise stated]

Presently, the Company's application/re-presentation (submitted on November 24, 2017) seeking post-facto approval to the aforesaid trading activities is under process with DIPP which took over from the FIPB after its dis-banding in June 2017. In the year 2018, the Government renamed DIPP as Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT).

Thereafter, the Company received a summon from the ED dated 5th March 2018 requiring appearance of the principal officer along with detailed information/documents w.r.t. wholesale and retail trading undertaken by the Company during the year 2000-2003 item-wise, value-wise and quantity-wise. However, these being extremely old information and as the matter of DPIIT post-facto approval seemed to be in the last leg, the Company had sought extension till March 5, 2020. Meanwhile, in the month of Feb 2020 the Company provided the required information to the extent available to the ED with a copy to DPIIT. Subsequently, the company officers had met the ED officer and submitted their statements in March 2020.

Considering the above, based on the legal opinion obtained by the Company, the management is of the view that an estimate of the financial liability on the Company cannot be determined with reasonable certainty at this point in time as the same may depend on various factors viz. view taken by DPIIT) in relation to the Company's re-presentation, the aggregate foreign investment in the Company, revenue and profits earned from the trading activities during the years 2000-2003, comments, if any, of ED on the matter. Accordingly, liability would be recognised in the year such uncertainty gets resolved.

- b) During the year ended March 31, 2019, software support services activity has been reduced which are being provided to Xerox corporation. This has resulted into termination of lease of one of the facility based at Gurugram. The lease agreement for the said property was non-cancellable till July 2021. As per the agreement, the Company was required to pay rent for the non-cancellable period if the agreement is terminated during the lock in period. Subsequent to March 31, 2019, the Company has entered into an agreement with the lessor and negotiated to reduce the non-cancellable period of 28 months to 11.5 months and accordingly, the Company has recognized an expense of Rs. 209.68 lacs, Rs. 10.07 lacs, Rs.51.77 lacs and Rs.123.64 lacs as Rent, Property tax, Maintenance and Fixed Assets written off under the heading of Rent, Rates and Taxes, Repair and Maintenance - others and Fixed assets written off respectively. The Company has also recognized Rs. 83.71 Lacs towards Brokerage fee under the heading of Legal and Professional expenses.

46. The Company has a comprehensive system of maintenance of information and documents as required by the transfer pricing legislation under sections 92-92F of the Income Tax Act, 1961. Since the law requires existence of such information and documentation to be contemporaneous in nature, the Company appoints independent consultants for conducting a Transfer Pricing Study to determine whether the transactions with associate enterprises are undertaken, during the financial year, on an "arms length basis". Adjustments, if any, arising from the transfer pricing study shall be accounted for as and when the study is completed for the current financial year. However the management is of the opinion that its international transactions are at arm's length so that the aforesaid legislation will not have any impact on the financial statements, particularly on the amount of tax expense and that of provision for taxation. The transfer pricing study for the financial year 2018-19 did not result in any adjustment.

48. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Company's activities expose it to credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk. The Company's senior management oversees the management of these risks.

The Company's senior management ensures that financial risk activities are governed by appropriate policies and procedures and that financial risks are identified, measured and managed in accordance with the Company's policies and risk objectives. All derivative activities to protect the currency exposure risk are carried out by the team that have the appropriate skills, experience and supervision.

(A) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss to the Company if a customer or counterparty to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations, and arises principally from the Company's receivables from customers and from its financial activities including deposits with banks. The carrying amounts of financial assets represent the maximum credit risk exposure.

Trade receivables, Contract assets and Finance lease receivables

The Trade receivables, Contract assets and Finance lease receivables of the Company are usually un-secured and derived from services rendered or sales made to a large number of contract as well as independent customers. As the customer base is widely distributed both economically and geographically, there is no concentration of credit risk.

As there is no independent credit rating of the customers available with the Company, the management reviews the credit-worthiness of its customers based on their financial position, past experience and other factors. In determining the allowances for doubtful trade receivables, contract assets and finance lease receivables the Company has used a simplified approach by computing the expected credit loss (ECL) allowance based on a provision matrix. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and is adjusted for forward looking information.

Reconciliation of ECL provision

	Trade receivables	Contract assets	Finance lease receivables
ECL provision on 1 April 2018	933.88	1.27	0.83
Changes in ECL provision during the year including bad debts written off against provision	(168.06)	0.63	0.48
ECL provision on 31 March 2019	765.82	1.90	1.31
Changes in ECL provision during the year including bad debts written off against provision	(96.14)	86.35	0.40
ECL provision on 31 March 2020	669.68	88.25	1.71

Cash & cash equivalents and bank deposits

Credit risk related to cash and cash equivalents and bank deposits is managed by only accepting highly rated banks and diversifying bank deposits accounts in different banks.

Other financial assets measured at amortised cost

Other financial assets measured at amortized cost includes security deposits and others. Credit risk related to these other financial assets is managed by monitoring the recoverability of such amounts continuously.

(B) Liquidity risk

Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and cash equivalents and the availability of funding to meet obligations when due. Management monitors rolling forecasts of the Company's liquidity position and cash and cash equivalents on the basis of expected cash flows.

Based on past performance and current expectations, the Company believes that the Cash and cash equivalents and cash generated from operations will satisfy its working capital needs, capital expenditure, commitments and other liquidity requirements associated with its existing operations, through at least the next twelve months.

Level 1: Level 1 hierarchy includes financial instruments measured using quoted prices.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

There are no transfers between level 1 and 2 during the year.

Notes to the Financial Statements

[All figures in Rs. lacs, unless otherwise stated]

(ii) Fair value of financial assets and liabilities measured at amortised cost

The carrying amounts of short term trade receivables, trade payables, cash and cash equivalents, other bank balances, security deposits and other current financial assets and liabilities are considered to be the same as their fair values, due to their short-term nature.

The fair values of security deposit are based on discounted cash flows using a current borrowing rate. They are classified as level 3 fair values in the fair value hierarchy since significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable. There is no material difference between carrying amount and fair value of security deposit as on March 31, 2020, March 31, 2019.

51. SHARE BASED PAYMENTS

Equity settled share based payments

Xerox Corporation, USA have a long-term incentive plan whereby eligible employees of the Company may be granted restricted stock units (RSUs), performance shares (PSs) in order to continue to attract and retain employees and to better align employees' interests with those of the shareholders. Each of these awards is subject to settlement with newly issued shares of common stock of Xerox Corporation.

Restricted stock units: Compensation expense is based upon the grant date market price and is recorded over the vesting period, which is normally three years from the date of grant, based on management's estimate of the number of shares expected to vest.

Performance shares: Vest contingent upon meeting pre-determined cumulative goals for revenue, earnings per Share (EPS) and cash flow from operations, typically over a three-year performance period. If the cumulative three-year actual results exceed the stated targets, then all plan participants have the potential to earn additional shares of common stock up to a maximum overachievement of 100% of the original grant. In 2017, the maximum overachievement that could be earned was changed to 100% (from 25%) for all participants to align their maximum overachievement with that of the officers and selected executives. Previously that level was only available to officers and certain senior executives. All performance shares entitle the holder to one share of common stock, payable after a three-year service period and attainment of the stated goals. The fair value of performance shares is based upon the market price of our stock on the date of the grant. Compensation expense is recognized over the vesting period, which is normally three years from the date of grant, based on management's estimate of the number of shares expected to vest. If the stated targets are not met, any recognized compensation cost would be reversed.
